PRINCIPLES

The governors and staff at Daventry Hill School believe that every student has the right to learn in a calm, safe and caring environment. We strive to ensure that all students have the social and emotional skills to be successful when they leave school.

All staff and students are expected to adopt and apply our Four Core Values, which were introduced in January 2019. This policy therefore replaces the previous behaviour policy.

1. Aims

This policy aims to promote and embed Daventry Hill School's Core Values:

We show Respect by: Recognising the qualities and abilities of others Caring for our own and others property and space Allowing others the space and time they need Helping and supporting others	We achieve Resilience by: Not giving up when things are difficult Exploring our emotions Learning from mistakes and keeping positive Taking on new challenges and experiences	We embrace our community by: Recognising diverse interests and attitudes Building positive relationships and connecting with others Celebrating all cultures, race and religions	We show Tolerance by: Being mindful of others ideas and opinions Recognising we are different Accepting change and negotiating difficulties Appreciating others behaviours and challenges

The core values define how we expect all staff and students to conduct themselves on a day-to-day basis and act as a guide to promote safe and positive behaviour. The core values are linked to the school's reward system and are used alongside the principles of Protective Behaviours to promote safe behaviour.

We believe that all behaviour communicates a need. Our overall aim is to enable students to feel safe and ready to learn so that they can become successful learners, confident individuals and responsible citizens. We achieve this by having a very clear focus and understanding within school on the principles of Behaviour for Learning, which identifies a student's:

- Relationship with self
- Relationship with others
- Relationship with the curriculum

2. Legislation and statutory requirements

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- Supporting pupils with medical conditions at school

It is also based on the special educational needs and disability \(SEND\) code of practice.

- Section 175 of the Education Act 2002, which outlines a school's duty to safeguard and promote the welfare of its pupils
- Sections 88-94 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which require schools to regulate pupils' behaviour and publish a behaviour policy and written statement of behaviour principles, and give schools the authority to confiscate pupils' property

4. Bullying

At Daventry Hill School, we believe that everyone has the right to feel safe all of the time and that we have a responsibility to create and maintain a safe and secure environment for students and adults alike.

All incidents of bullying (including perceived bullying) are recorded electronically on Behaviour Watch and members of the Leadership Team are alerted immediately.

Bullying is not an inevitable part of school life, or part of growing up and we believe that we should work together to make our school a happy, enjoyable and safe place for all.

Bullying is defined as the repetitive, intentional harming of one person or group by another person or group, where the relationship involves an imbalance of power.

Bullying is, therefore:

- Deliberately hurtful
- Repeated, often over a period of time
- Difficult to defend against

Bullying can include:

Type of bullying	Definition
Emotional	Being unfriendly, excluding, tormenting
Physical	Hitting, kicking, pushing, taking another's belongings, any use of violence
Racial	Racial taunts, graffiti, gestures
Sexual	Explicit sexual remarks, display of sexual material, sexual gestures, unwanted physical attention, comments about sexual reputation or performance, or inappropriate touching
Direct or indirect verbal	Name-calling, sarcasm, spreading rumours, teasing

Cyber-bullying	Bullying that takes place online, such as through social networking sites, messaging apps or gaming sites
----------------	---

Bullying affects everyone, not just the bullies and the victims. It affects those who witness violence, aggression and the distress of the victim. It may damage the atmosphere of the class and change the 'climate' of the school.

As part of our commitment to safeguarding our students, all staff are trained to identify possible signs and indicators of bullying and how to report concerns.

Prevention:

Specific curricular approaches are used to explore the issues surrounding bullying; to give students strategies to use if bullied and to make explicit the school's policy on bullying.

Safe and unsafe behaviours are explicitly taught through PSHE & Protective behaviours within each year group. This reinforces the themes and messages via planned activities (group or individual), assemblies, modelling and post incident de-briefing.

Procedure:

All incidents of bullying will be investigated and where possible a Restorative Approach will be used to repair the harm that has been caused. This approach has been adopted by Daventry Hill School as the preferred way of managing incidents of bullying.

- 1) In the first instance, a member of the Leadership Team will speak with both the victim and the alleged bully with the view to facilitating a restorative repair. Where bullying has been identified, Parents / Carers will be informed.
- 2) Any further incidents of bullying will then be managed by the Head of School/Assistant Headteacher and Parents / Carers will be invited into school for a meeting.

The Head of School will also consider the needs of staff accused of misconduct.

8. Managing behaviour

8.1 Classroom management

Teaching and support staff are responsible for setting the tone and context for positive behaviour within the classroom.

They will:

- Create and maintain a stimulating environment that encourages students to be engaged
- Plan and create a curriculum that supports and encourages students to engage
- Display the student code of conduct / core values within the classroom
- Promote and model a range of strategies to support students to show safe behaviours including Protective Behaviours, Skills Builder, Zones of Regulation and Restorative Approaches to resolving conflict as detailed in this policy.
- Develop a positive relationship with students and champion them which will include:
  - Greeting students in the morning/at the start of lessons
  - Establishing clear routines & boundaries
  - Highlighting, promoting and modelling safe behaviour
  - Having a plan for dealing with low-level disruption
  - Using positive reinforcement
  - Building a relationship and getting to know each student and the support they need to be successful at Daventry Hill School.

8.2 Physical intervention:

In some circumstances, staff may physically intervene to prevent a student from:

- Unsafe behaviour such as causing harm to themselves or others
- Damaging property

Incidents of physical intervention must:

- Always be used as a last resort
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible
- Be used in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never be used as a form of punishment
- Be recorded and reported to parents

At Daventry Hill School all staff are trained to use the Team Teach approach of physical intervention. This focuses on de-escalation techniques and uses physical intervention as a last resort.

Staff must consider if the use of physical intervention is necessary, reasonable and proportionate.

In the event of physical intervention being necessary, the staff member involved MUST complete the relevant section of the Behaviour Watch incident form and log the time, date and duration of intervention, type of physical intervention, witnesses and the rationale behind it.

Parents / Carers must be informed if a physical intervention has taken place with their child by the class team, key stage leader or pastoral team as appropriate.

It is the responsibility of those involved in the physical intervention to ensure that parents / carers are informed and as part of their responsibility to themselves ask for debrief as required.

Debrief will be with a member of the Pastoral or Leadership team and will be recorded on Behaviour Watch which enables us to reflect and develop safe practice.

8.3 Confiscation

Any prohibited items (listed below) found in a student's possession will be confiscated. These items will not be returned to students.

- knives or weapons
- alcohol
- illegal drugs
- stolen items
- tobacco and cigarette papers
- fireworks
- pornographic images
- Any article that the member of staff reasonably suspects has been, or is likely to be, used to commit an offence, or to cause personal injury to, or damage to the property of, any person (including the student).

We will also confiscate any item which we believe to be harmful or unsafe. These items will be returned to students after discussion with senior leaders and parents as appropriate.

Searching and screening pupils is conducted in line with the DfE's latest guidance on searching, screening and confiscation.

8.4 Student support

The school recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010 to prevent students with a protected characteristic from being at a disadvantage. Consequently, our approach to challenging behaviour will be differentiated and personalised to cater to the needs of the student.

Daventry Hill School School's Pastoral and Welfare Team will work with students, staff, families and outside agencies to support a student who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have any underlying needs that are not currently being met. A range of proactive strategies will be put in place to support the student and will be regularly reviewed.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist practitioners, Educational & Clinical Psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

8.5 Underlying approaches to managing behaviour:

At Daventry Hill School we have a range of approaches and strategies which support students to understand expectations, identify and label their own emotions and feelings and to reflect on their own behaviour choices as detailed below:

Protective Behaviours:

Protective Behaviours (PBs) provides a framework for personal safety, self-esteem, resilience and confidence building. It is an internal process where each person applies the ideas to their own unique experience. It encourages self-empowerment and brings with it the skills to avoid feeling unsafe. This is achieved by helping students to recognise and trust their intuitive feelings (Early Warning Signs) and to develop strategies for self-protection. The Protective Behaviours process encourages an adventurous approach to life which satisfies the need for fun and excitement without violence and fear.

There are two themes which are explicitly taught to all students and revisited on a regular basis.

“We all have the right to feel safe all of the time”

“We can talk with someone about anything even if it feels awful or small”

All students are supported to have a network of support which identifies adults in school and at home who they can talk with if they are feeling unsafe. Students produce this in the form of a ‘helping hand’ and these are displayed as a visual reminder.

Students are taught to recognise their own signs when they are beginning to feel unsafe and these are known as ‘early warning signs’. Students identify physical feelings such as butterflies in their tummy, heart beating faster and clammy hands. This supports students to be able to self-regulate and this in turn increases their emotional literacy.

Protective behaviours uses the language of safety and refers to all behaviours as ‘safe’ or ‘unsafe’. At Daventry Hill School we use this in all conversations to reinforce;

“Feelings are just feelings”

“Thoughts are just thoughts”

“Behaviour is a choice”

Zones of regulation: A framework to foster self-regulation and emotional control:

At Daventry Hill School the Zones of regulation are introduced across both primary and secondary phases. Students identify where they are on the Zones and learn to recognise their thoughts and feelings early on thus enabling them to use strategies to regulate themselves into a safe, ready to learn state.

The Zones is a systematic, cognitive behavioural approach used to teach self-regulation by categorizing all the different ways we feel and states of alertness we experience into four concrete coloured zones. The Zones framework provides strategies to teach students to become more aware of and independent in controlling their emotions and impulses, manage their sensory needs, and improve their ability to problem solve conflicts.

By addressing underlying deficits in emotional and sensory regulation, executive functioning, and social cognition, the framework is designed to help move students toward independent regulation. The Zones of Regulation incorporates Social Thinking, concepts and numerous visuals to teach students to identify their feelings/level of alertness, understand how their behaviour affects those around them, and learn what tools they can use to manage their feelings and states.

The four Zones: our feelings and states determine our Zone

The Red Zone is used to describe extremely heightened states of alertness and intense emotions. A person may be elated or experiencing anger, rage, explosive behaviour, devastation, or terror when in the Red Zone.

The Yellow Zone is also used to describe a heightened state of alertness and elevated emotions; however one has more control when they are in the Yellow Zone. A person may be experiencing stress, frustration, anxiety, excitement, silliness, the wiggles, or nervousness when in the Yellow Zone.

The Green Zone is used to describe a calm state of alertness. A person may be described as happy, focused, content, or ready to learn when in the Green Zone. This is the zone where optimal learning occurs.

The Blue Zone is used to describe low states of alertness and down feelings such as when one feels sad, tired, sick, or bored.

The Zones can be compared to traffic signs. When given a green light or in the Green Zone, one is "good to go". A yellow sign means be aware or take caution, which applies to the Yellow Zone. A red light or stop sign means stop, and when one is the Red Zone this often is the case. The Blue Zone can be compared to the rest area signs where one goes to rest or re-energise. All of the zones are natural to experience, but the framework focuses on teaching students how to recognize and manage their Zone based on the environment and its demands and the people around them. For example, when playing on the playground or in an active/competitive game, students are often experiencing a heightened internal state such as silliness or excitement and are in the Yellow Zone, but it may not need to be managed. However, if the environment is changed to the library where there are different expectations than the playground, students may still be in the Yellow Zone but have to manage it differently so their behaviour meets the expectations of the library setting.

Skills Builder

Skills builder is a programme designed to introduce children and young people to eight essential transferable skills. Teaching a skills based curriculum is essential in preparing our students for adulthood. These are real life skills needed reach their full potential in everyday life and employment.

The eight skills link to other parts of the curriculum, enabling the children and young people to use them in all learning.

About Restorative Language:

When our students find themselves in conflict or upset we will ask them:

What happened?

What were you thinking at the time?

What were you feeling at the time?

Did it affect anyone else?

We will then also say to our students:

What needs to happen to put it right?

What could you do differently?

How do you feel now?

How do you think they feel?

Most situations can be dealt with by working through these questions. The aim is that the outcome is fair for everyone. If somebody is upset, we aim to make them feel better. If someone has done something wrong, we expect them to take responsibility for their actions and fix the situation.

Restorative process:

Restorative processes bring those harmed by conflict and those responsible for the harm, into communication, enabling everyone affected by a particular incident to play a part in repairing the harm and finding a positive way forward

Dialogue with your students: Having a reflective and restorative dialogue with students is a powerful way to communicate and repair the harm that has been caused.

Debrief: Students and Staff may need a period of time to debrief after an incident has happened. This may be in the form of some quiet time out or a conversation with another member of staff such as the Pastoral Team / Leadership team.

Behaviour watch: Notifications are sent to class teachers and the Pastoral Team. This allows staff to see any behaviours which have happened during the day and then a dialogue can be opened up between the class staff and student to unpick the behaviour and follow the restorative steps to put it right.

Some students will need more support and this may involve the Pastoral Team, Key Stages Leaders or Senior Leadership Team.

Schools that use this approach have found that they have been able to:

Equality for All

We understand and respect that all of our students are different and provide a school experience that is accessible and appropriate for all our students. Through careful monitoring, should it present itself as necessary, we will seek the support and guidance of other professionals such as:

- Pastoral & Welfare Team including Learning Mentors, Occupational Therapist, Inclusion Co-ordinator, Family Support Worker & Pastoral Support Team.
- Educational Psychologist

- Counselling Psychologist
- External support agencies as necessary

9. Pupil transition

To ensure a smooth transition to the next year, students have transition sessions with their new teacher(s). In addition, staff members hold transition meetings.

At Daventry Hill School, students have an extended transition period whereby they move up to their new classes and a transition timetable is planned. This allows students time to get to know their new class and staff teams as well as their new environment.

There are opportunities built into this time to allow the transition lead to visit students at their feeder Schools and meet with parents prior to their formal start at Daventry Hill School.

10. Training

Our staff are provided with Team Teach training on managing behaviour, including use of de-escalation strategies and physical interventions as part of their induction process. This is updated on a regular basis and formally every two years and forms part of staffs continuing professional development.

In addition to the above, training on attachment awareness, restorative approaches and managing specific learning needs are in place.

11. Monitoring arrangements

The Head of School will review this Relationship policy every year. At each review, the policy will be approved by the Head of School and governing body.

12. Links with other policies

This Relationship policy is linked to the following policies:

- Exclusion policy
- Safeguarding policy
