Our Student Core Values

(KS3 & KS4)

Our values based approach to life and learning.

Our Core Values at Daventry Hill School

Our Core Values are a set of fundamental values that drive our organisation. They are the foundations on which every aspect of our work and success is built upon.

All of our students are taught the Core Values and our Relationship Policy is linked explicitly to this.

Respect in Key Stage 3 & 4

- I can consider the feelings and wishes of others.
- I can treat people equally.
- I can listen to others.
- I can treat people as I would like to be treated.
- I can accept other people for who they are.

Tolerance in Key Stage 3 & 4

- I can accept that other people may have different beliefs, religions, cultures or values.
- I can listen to others opinions and beliefs, even if I don't agree with them.
- I understand that other people may act differently towards me.
- I can show patience with others who are different.
- I can agree to disagree

Community in Key Stage 3 & 4

- I can inspire others.
- I can work with people in a positive way.
- I can share successes.
- I can tell someone if I see or think something is wrong.
- I can help make a safe, secure and happy place.

Resilience in Key Stage 3 & 4

- I can regulate my emotions.
- I can try new challenging things.
- I understand that when mistakes happen I can learn from them.
- I can try again if I don't succeed at first.
- I can maintain a positive attitude.
