Our Student Core Values

(KS5)

Our values based approach to life and learning.

Our Core Values at Daventry Hill School

Our Core Values are a set of fundamental values that drive our organisation. They are the foundations on which every aspect of our work and success is built upon. All of our students are taught the Core Values and our Relationship Policy is linked explicitly to this.

Respect in Foundations for the Future

- I recognise that respect is given and not taken.
- I can show admiration for someone for their abilities, qualities or achievements.
- I have a regard for people's feelings and wishes
- I respect that others have rights
- I can accept others ability to express themselves

Tolerance in Foundations for the Future

- I can be patient, understanding and accepting of anything different
- I respect the right of others to have different beliefs than me
- I understand that other people have different behaviours, actions and thoughts
- I understand that other live in different environments which will shape their thoughts and behaviours

Community in Foundations for the Future

- I can be a role model and follow the rules.
- I recognise the importance in giving back.
- I can share the same environment with a group of individuals
- I recognise a successful community is safe, cohesive, confident and happy.
- I can promote active participation for all

Resilience in Foundations for the Future

- I can challenge myself.
- I understand the importance in not giving up.
- I know that if I make a mistake I can learn from it.
- I have the ability to endure
- I can recover quickly from setbacks
